Deborah has designed a new informational postcard about the PRIDES, which will be distributed to club mailboxes, placed at the Visitor Center, dropped into Ronn's give-away bags and carried in the Squad van.

Deborah and our webmaster Marcia Davis are working on ideas to update our webpage with pictures and videos about our various projects, as well as specialty pages. The bottom of each page will have contact information.

County Update: EPCOR and the County have agreed on the water situation for the area at Peoria and 107th, so that project should be able to move along soon. A sample of new, eco-friendly plastic bags are available, although Ronn hasn't seen them yet.

Membership Meeting

Signs Update: Lloyd Maple reported that plans for the monument signs have been approved by the County, and the permit has been given to the contractor, Salazar Landscaping and Gardening. We have received over $11,000 in donations; the project is expected to cost $12,000. Lloyd explained that the phrase “City of Volunteers” was put on the new signs on purpose to encourage volunteerism.

Roads & Safety: Cindy Hintze reported on the March 16th meeting. Flock cameras are being used in Youngtown, and crime seems to have decreased somewhat. However, the cameras are very expensive, and the County will not fund them for Sun City at this time. The Sun City Posse has increased their foot patrols and added night patrols, with two posse members per car. They encourage people to report by saying, “If you see it, report it!”

Other Business: Pat Richardson recognized Earl and Ima Winchell, who are retiring after 18 years as PRIDES. Val Bedoe said that the Beautification Committee will need a new 5-year plan to start in 2024, and they should meet to begin planning.

The money jar was won by Linda Liang.

The next meeting will be held on May 7, 2022.

Mike Will made a motion to adjourn, and Val Bedoe seconded the motion. The motion carried, and the meeting was adjourned at 9:45 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,
